

Peter Manyonge Wamocho
Kenyan

Certification in Humanitarian Supply Chain Management

What attracted you to apply for Aspire funding?

What attracted me most to apply for Aspire funding was the need to get certification in Humanitarian Supply Chain Management. Since I had necessary experience which lacked international recognition and my current financial status could not allow me to fund the course

What course did you apply for and why?

I qualified to apply for Humanitarian Supply Chain Management. I have necessary experience from Military Logistics and I have passion working with humanitarian organizations having worked with CARE International as a District Famine Relief Coordinator in Samburu District of Kenya

What proved the biggest challenge during your studies?

The biggest challenge I faced in studying this course is adapting to the new learning method. Which I had to adapt to as time passed by and found it very relevant and effective at the end

What's been the most rewarding aspect of the course?

The most rewarding aspect of the course is achievement I have attained. Now am competent in logistics strategic and tactical planning, supply chain planning and management. I can get things done differently through people working together

Is there anything that surprised you about course?

Yes! The course is based on true case scenarios and very easy to follow if you use the course reading materials guidelines as directed. No short cuts of copy and paste because it will not add up!. Tutors are very helpful and understandingly strict! Though are no direct answers to questions you need to convince the coach!

What new skills have you acquired as a result of the training?

I have acquired modern skills in logistics strategic and tactical planning and management, Supply Chain planning and Management

How did you find the experience

The experience of this course is very realistic as it involves alleviating human suffering and based on saving lives. The speed of meeting beneficiary correct needs is of essences. This means the Supply chain has to be efficient and effective from the supplier to beneficiary locations

Is there anything else you would like to comment about your Aspire experience?

Yes! I would like to comment Aspire for this noble idea of offering scholarships to those aspiring to advance their knowledge in the field humanitarian aid. As knowledge is power! This will enable people to serve and save humanity as new ideas are always scarce! And come at a price!

What advice would you give anyone considering applying for Aspire funding?

Those qualified to apply for Aspire funding should know that these scholarships are competitive and Aspire will give you the award without any discrimination of any kind. And Aspire sponsors particular courses in humanitarian aid